Join a panel of experts as they discuss:

- overcoming the stigma of seeking help for mental illness,
- how to recognize the signs of mental health distress,
- ways to respond when someone turns to you,
- how to refer a person for help,
- and resources for mental health ministry

A survivor will share her story including how she was encouraged to seek help.

This live learning session is being co-sponsored by the National Catholic Partnership on Disability, Catholic Charities USA, and Catholics For Family Peace - Initiative on Domestic Abuse.
